DESCRIPTION:	A Pinot Blanc of stunning minerality thanks to the significant limestone composition of the loessy Grossweikersdorf hillside vineyards. Traditional large oak barrel maturation lends this white Pinot a distinctive structure and complexity, and enhances its traditional fruity Austrian character. The nose opens with delicate aromas of yellow fruit and white flowers before revealing the dense concentration of the classic loess style.
PAIRING RECOMMENDATIONS:	Monkfish with lentils, Asian cuisine, lobster, strong cheese, mild game, duck, venison saddle, white asparagus

“PINOT FROM LOESS SOIL, RICH WITH FRUIT, COMPLEXITY AND STRUCTURE.”
