ORIGIN:	Wagram
CLASSIFICATION:	Village-level wine Wagram
VARIETY:	100 % Pinot Blanc
SOIL:	Loess
AGRICULTURE:	Organic AT-BIO-402
HARVEST DATE:	4 and 12 October 2022
MUST WEIGHT:	18.5°KMW; 92 Öchsle
FERMENTATION:	Large wooden barrels
AGING:	The wine is allowed to rest on its gross lees in large wooden barrels
ALCOHOL:	13 %
TOTAL ACIDITY:	5.1 g/l
RESIDUAL SUGAR:	Dry
DESCRIPTION:	A Pinot Blanc of stunning minerality thanks to the significant limestone composition of the loessy Grossweikersdorf hillside vineyards. Traditional large oak barrel maturation lends this white Pinot a distinctive structure and complexity, and enhances its traditional fruity Austrian character. The nose opens with delicate aromas of yellow fruit and white flowers before revealing the dense concentration of the classic loess style.
PAIRING RECOMMENDATIONS:	Monkfish with lentils, Asian cuisine, lobster, strong cheese, mild game, duck, venison saddle, white asparagus

“PINOT FROM LOESS SOIL, RICH WITH FRUIT, COMPLEXITY AND STRUCTURE.”
